ARTS & CRAFTS

Beginner/Intermediate Fine Art, Acrylic/Oil Painting

Donna Skonning

This class is all about painting. You will be learning paint and canvas preparation and review of different application techniques. There will also be discussion and review of conservation techniques and a review of the history of contemporary painters. There will be guidance to help you complete at least 1 painting and finally a critique session at the end. Supply list includes:

For oil paint, 1 recommended Gamblin; for acrylic, 1 recommended Golden

Beginning painting requires 12-15 colors for a sophisticated palette:

150ml tube Titanium White, ivory black, cadmium red medium, permanent rose, alizarin crimson or rose madder, cadmium yellow, yellow ochre, lemon yellow, viridian green or permanent green, ultramarine blue, cerulean blue, violet, burnt sienna, raw sienna, burnt umber and raw umber. 1 container to hold water (for acrylic painting, large plastic cup will do).

Container to hold solvent oils (for oil painting), glass jar or art made plastic solvent jar.

Solvents for oils: OMS (odorless mineral spirits only) Use turpenoid or Gamsol about 480ml.

Mediums for oils: choose at least one medium such as refined linseed oil, galkyd, stand oil.

Brushes: there are several varieties; rounds, flats, brights, filberts, angular and riggers.

Minimum requirement is three round brushes(sizes 0/2/4), four flats (sized 2,4,6,8), and filbert (size 8). Palette: could be wood, plastic, disposable paper plate. Canvas: any size pre-primed.

Upholstery

Barbara McElherne

Learn by doing! Save that favorite chair or antique and give it many more useful and enjoyable years. Bring in your projects (furniture must be taken home after each class) and work on them right in class. With a bit of help and guidance in repairing and recovering, you can accomplish wonders. Each project is basically the same, but each must be approached in a careful, individualized manner to insure the correct end result. With a varied group of furniture being worked on, you learn not only by doing your own piece but also by observing others. First night consists of fabric selection and other basics. Please bring a rubber mallet, tack puller and your project and dive right in.

*#70090 8 evenings Wed., Sept. 18 – Nov. 6 6:30-9:30 p.m. North Campus

HOME & FAMILY

How To Design and Build Your New Home or Remodeling Project Tom Molidor, Builder/Designer featured on HGTV

This is one of the best times to design and build a new home and/or addition, yet you need to be smart about choosing the right builder, architect, and amenities in your home to make sure you keep the costs down and your home's value high. Let us show you how to make the right decisions. The whole building process can be simplified. Are you considering building a new home or adding onto your current home-or simply converting a basement into your own private space? Many people in the area choose to stay in their existing homes, yet want to get ideas on converting rooms that are empty into truly livable spaces!

Have you ever thought about converting your home's first floor space into a Master Bedroom suite? This is one of the hottest trends right now.

Getting rid of a massive whirlpool and converting it into a spacious walk-in shower? Did you know that every town has certain building codes and restrictions that are unique to them?

If you have ever asked yourself these questions, then this course is for you. Learn from an Award-winning builder/designer how to get started; place your dreams on paper; select a builder/designer; determine the cost; work with trades and address the issue of budget vs. desires. #70105 3 evenings Wed., Sept. 18 – Oct. 2 7:00-9:00 p.m. North Campus Room 118, $45/Senior Citizen Discount Card $22.50

INVESTMENT, FINANCE & INSURANCE

Five Questions You Should Answer Before You Retire

Mark Andrus, CRPC®

If you are thinking about retirement and not sure how to answer the following: what is one of the biggest threats to my retirement; when should I begin Social Security; how much can I spend in retirement; how much should I invest in retirement and, am I on track?

Come hear Mark J. Andrus, CRPC® of Wells Fargo Advisors give a thorough discussion on these important and timely topics. You will be given a reference guide to take home at the end of class.

#10026 1 evening Wed., Sept. 25 7:00-8:00 p.m. South Campus Room B115 Free seminar

*You must register either online or with enrollment form for all free seminars

Fundamentals of Investing – Why Invest?

Mark Andrus, CRPC®

Increased life expectancy, need to be self-sufficient, worried about outliving your savings, handling rising cost of college, how to reduce taxes and hedge funds. Is an Investment Policy Statement something for only ultra-high net worth families or something you should consider? These are just some of the topics that will be covered in this 2 hour class.

The main reason people fail to reach financial independence is procrastination. It always seems that we can't start investing because of the holidays, taxes, vacations, the children's teeth, school and so on. But there is no better time than now to start some prudent form of investing. Come and hear what Mark J. Andrus, CRPC®, Financial Advisor at Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC., will say in this interactive presentation designed to show investment strategies and why asset allocation plays such an important role in helping you meet your financial goals. You will receive a bounded book of the course material for notes and future reference.

Folk Guitar & Banjo Classes

These classes offer group guitar and banjo instruction at South Campus. The concept is to make the learning of a musical instrument fun by teaching enjoyable songs in a relaxed, social atmosphere. A lesson includes both sixty minutes of group instruction and a half-hour sing-along with all classes combined. If you're not sure of what class to take, sign up for the beginning level. Changes from level to level are permitted after the first night of class. The instructors include Chris McIntosh and Alvin McGovern. One of the unique features of the program is the two Get Togethers, which are music parties. They give students an opportunity to play their instruments for an extended period of time, something we think will improve their skills while they have fun doing it. See descriptions that follow. STUDENTS MUST BRING ACOUSTIC INSTRUMENTS TO CLASS. The Old Town School Songbook is required for all classes; it can be purchased in class for $15.00.

Banjo

Chris McIntosh

This banjo course is for the person who has always wanted to play a musical instrument but felt he/she didn't have the time. Designed for the busy adult with no previous musical knowledge, the accent is on having fun! The 5-string banjo is one of the easiest of the stringed instruments to learn to play. You don't even have to read music. The course material ranges from the simple basic chords and strums, to playing basic arrangements of folk songs.

*#40010 10 evenings Tues., Sept. 17 – Nov. 19 8:00-9:30 p.m. South Campus
Room G102 $105/Senior Citizen Discount Card $52.50*

Banjo II

Introduction to Frailing

Chris McIntosh

This class is an introduction to the "Old-Timey" frailing style of banjo playing. Frailing was a style developed in the Appalachians before the Civil War, and it's still being played today. This class is lots of fun! You'll learn old mountain dance tunes like "Cripple Creek" as well as popular folk songs like "Oh! Susanna," and lots more. Prerequisite is completion of Banjo I or equivalent skill on the banjo.

*#40015 10 evenings Tues., Sept. 17 – Nov. 19 8:00-9:30 p.m. South Campus
Room G102 $105/Senior Citizen Discount Card $52.50*

Guitar I

Chris McIntosh

Persons with no previous experience in guitar will learn primary chords, elements of timing, strumming techniques, and simple accompaniments to several songs from our text. Guitar tuning will be demonstrated. You do not need to know how to read music! Please bring your acoustic guitar to class.

*#40020 10 evenings Tues., Sept. 17 - Nov. 19 7:00-8:30 p.m. South Campus

Guitar II

Alvin McGovern

This class could also be called beginning accompaniment-style guitar. Using an expanded selection of songs, this level consists of a review of primary chords, introduction to bass runs, arpeggios and other right-hand techniques. Bare chords will be demonstrated. Please bring your acoustic guitar to class.

*#40025 10 evenings Tues., Sept. 17 – Nov. 19 8:00-9:30 p.m. South Campus
Room G104 $105/Senior Citizen Discount Card rate $52.50*

Guitar III

Alvin McGovern

Consider this level if you can change simple chords with some continuity and have some experience in playing arpeggios and simple bass runs. The third guitar level consists of learning a variety of right-hand techniques, more complex bass runs, accompaniments to several songs, and an introduction to finger picking. This class is a place to assimilate techniques previously introduced, as well as to learn new material. It is usually attended for several semesters. Please bring your acoustic guitar to class.

*#40030 10 evenings Tues., Sept. 17 – Nov. 19 7:00-8:30 p.m. South Campus
Room G104 $105/Senior Citizen Discount Card $52.50*

Guitar IV

Alvin McGovern

For the guitar player who needs some theory as well as learning to play fill-ins up the neck, playing leads, and advanced finger picking arrangements. This class is a place to assimilate techniques previously introduced, as well as learning new material. It is usually attended for several semesters. Please bring your acoustic guitar to class.
